

Order of Nunavik Program

The Order of Nunavik is conferred upon Inuit men and women “for outstanding achievements in different fields.”

The Order of Nunavik Program celebrates the accomplishments of Nunavik Inuit of all ages and inspires Nunavik beneficiaries to strive to reach its goals.

Each year, Nunavik Inuit are nominated by their fellow JBNQA beneficiaries for their achievements, leadership, and innovation.

The final two selected , accomplished and motivated Inuit are named Nunavik Role Models and inducted into the Order of Nunavik at an award ceremony held during the Makivvik Corporation Annual General meeting.

The Nunavik Role Model Program aims to:

- Promote healthy lifestyles and self-esteem among Nunavik Inuit.
- Strengthen Nunavik culture and identity.
- Promote positive public images of Nunavik Inuit.
- Facilitate the availability of Nunavik Role Models to Nunavik Inuit and communities.
- Influence behaviours and attitudes of Nunavik Inuit toward healthy lifestyles.
- Foster inspired leadership.

Nominating

Any person or group in Nunavik is welcome to nominate a deserving individual as candidate for an Order of Nunavik Award by completing this nomination form.

Confidentiality

All nominations are kept confidential to respect privacy and to avoid disappointment if the nominee is not selected. We ask that nominators and others involved respect this policy.

Selection Process
