

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO NUNAVIMMIUT

In application of the Outfitting Regime of the James Bay and Northern Quebec Agreement, Makivvik has an opportunity to exercise its Right of First Refusal on two outfitting (2) transfer cases, by itself or in favor of a person(s) it designates.

| Delay River Outfitters                                                                                                          | Website: https://rivieredelay.com/home/                                          |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Outfitting Licence 10-534                                                                                                       | Outfitting Licence 10-571                                                                                                     |
| Site 01 Meleze River (North) Cat. III     | Site SCP-02 Little Whale River Cat. II |
| Site 02 Delay River (Maricourt) Cat. III |                                                                                                                               |
| Site 04 Delay River Cat. III             |                                                                                                                               |
| Site 05 Du Gué River Cat. III            |                                                                                                                               |

If you have an interest in partaking in the outfitting industry while acquiring the operation(s) up for transfer, contact by August 28th Makivvik (Philippe Poulain ppoulain@makivvik.ca, or Mylène Larivière (mlariviere@makivvik.ca) for more information.
Confidential arrangements may be necessary before accessing further details on these outfitting businesses.

The Right of First Refusal is a privileged right enjoyed in Category III lands by the Inuit, Cree and Naskapi under Section 24 of the JBNQA, in recognition of their specific and distinct roles and aspirations for a sustainable, controlled traditional economic wildlife development of their respective territory.